MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

(Forming part of Directors' Report)

Industry Structure and Developments:

The Indian financial services industry is in a process of rapid transformation. Reforms are continuing as part of the overall structural reforms aimed at improving the productivity and efficiency of the economy. The role of an integrated financial infrastructure is to stimulate and sustain economic growth.

Overall, the US$28 billion Indian financial sector has grown at around 15 percent and has displayed stability for the last several years, even when other markets in the Asian region were facing a crisis, according to Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India. This stability was ensured through the resilience that has been built into the system over time. The financial Services sector has kept pace with the growing needs of corporate and other borrowers. Banks, capital market participants and insurers have developed a wide range of products and services to suit varied customer requirements.

Segment Wise Analysis of the Industry:

India's financial services sector will enjoy generally strong growth during coming years, driven by rising personal incomes, corporate restructuring, financial sector liberalization and the growth of a more consumer-oriented, credit-oriented culture. This should lead to increasing demand for financial products, including consumer loans (especially for cars and homes), as well as for insurance and pension products. India's financial services sector is expected to enjoy generally strong growth during coming years, driven by rising personal incomes, corporate restructuring, financial sector liberalization and the growth of a more consumer-oriented, credit-oriented culture. This is expected to lead to increasing demand for financial products, including consumer loans (especially for cars and homes), as well as for insurance and pension products.

Opportunities:

Statistics indicate the low penetration levels in the Financial Services industry: "Only 37% of bank branches of Scheduled Commercial Banks are present in rural areas, with only around 40% of the population holding a bank account. Moreover, out of the 600,000 habitations in the country, only about 30,000 have a commercial bank branch."

Infrastructure financing is a key pillar of growth, with the banking sector playing an increasing role in building the growth momentum, the role of the private sector towards funding infrastructure development, apart from strengthening the corporate bond market and increased participation from pension funds and insurance companies.

Outlook:

With a population of more than a billion, a mere 1% of the population participates in capital markets, and of that only a fraction is active. Emerging markets like India have exhibited a strong growth momentum, driven by a robust demand, consumption and savings rate. A study by World Bank supports this by forecasting that the share of the five big emerging economies India, China, Indonesia, Brazil and Russia in 2010 will double to 16.1% from 7.8% in 1992.

Challenges, Risks and Concerns:

A huge challenge for financial institutions today is functioning and retaining their efficiency in such uncertain times. Business models are undergoing a structural change to accommodate the changing regulations and foster growth. There needs to be a well-defined framework which will withstand disruptions and lead the financial markets towards growth and progression.

Human Resources Development and Industrial Relations:

Vijay Growth Financial Services Ltd firmly believes that the Human Assets are more critical than physical and financial assets as they are the ones who manage and sustain the growth of physical and financial assets of the company. The Company is well on its way in establishing an integrated system of workforce, which endeavors to develop the capability of its employees that clearly aligns with the business objectives and performance.

Further, we also encourage individual and team awards to sustain and institutionalize the various workforce practices. This helped in giving lots of encouragement to the workforce who have been striving hard to achieve various goals.

Cautionary Statement:

Statement in this Management Discussion and Analysis describing the Company's objective, projections, estimates and expectations may be 'forward looking statements' within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations. Certain observations made on the industry and other players also reflect on opinion by the management and the management accepts no liability on such opinions. Actual results might differ materially from those either expressed or implied.
